

WASHINGTON, SUNDAY, APRIL 24, 1904.

The Most Attractive Week Of Our Busiest April Shoe-Sale

THE busiest April Shoe Selling we've ever known—forcibly proclaims the Public's satisfaction in the greatest array of stunningly beautiful new Spring Shoe-styles ever shown in Washington.

This week we'll give you the benefit of some large contracts made last winter. Manufacturers, to keep their help employed during the dull winter months, accepted our orders at prices that they would scorn during these busy spring months. This explains this week's low prices.
